No. 80 Broadway, New York. B. STITH, tenders his services to the Merechants, Planters, and Citizens of North Carolina, and to Southern Merchants generally, as Agent, Com-mission Merchant, and Dry Goods and Grocery Brok-er, in the City of New-York; and will attend to any business in his line-either in

THE SALE OF PRODUCE OR MERCHANDISE, OR THE PURCHASE OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Shoes, Hats. Furniture, Carriages, Medical and Agricul-, tural Instruments, Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.

He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for Southern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in the city of Raleigh -will enable him to give entire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Uncon-nected with any establishment in New-York, and de-N the 2nd Monday in May next, I shall offer for Sale at the Court House door, in the Town of sales, and being present to improve every opportunity Nashville, N. C., fifty acres of land, lying on the waters sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconveniences and expense of a trip to New York. The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the babit of buying Goods in New York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to all Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every oppor-tunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep up their stocks by getting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconveniencies of a large amount of bills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction. Merchants, and other persons, disposed to employ him, will please to forward with their orders their references, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New York, and in all instances he will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his taste and judgment to insure future orders. His commissions will be two and a halt per cent. Address A. B. STITH, New York.
